

What if...Lay worship leaders from congregations in Shining Waters North could support one another by collaborating and sharing resources?

If Sunday morning is the heartbeat of your faith community...then how might God's Spirit work among us to generate new opportunities to share our hearts?

Wednesday February 8th, 1 – 4pm

Hosts: Maynooth United Church

Sponsors: Shining Waters Presbytery

Facilitated by: Reverends Allan & Lynn Smith-Reeve

Register with Earl Liverseed Earl.Liverseed@gmail.com 613 338 3440

What to expect:

A gathering of folks like you who lead worship because they love their church.

Possibility thinking based on local assets and resources.

Deep and meaningful conversations with people who share your passions and hopes for their church.

What NOT to expect

An expert with cookie cutter solutions to make worship successful in your church.

Complaints about what's wrong with the church.

A few voices dominating conversations.

Strategies for re-creating the church of the 1950s.

Bring your curiosity into a conversation about what makes for inviting worship.

- Creating a Sacred Space
- Asking the right questions
- Experiencing the Holy among us
- Telling old stories in new ways and new stories with ancient wisdom.

Facilitation: Lynn and Allan currently serve in small rural congregations. They have grown & encouraged teams of Lay Worship Leaders in every congregation where they've served.
